Outfit- a group of people working together

Autobiography- a story someone wrote about their own life

Frontier- unsettled part of the country

Saloon- bar, place where adults drink alcohol

Civil- polite

Pitching- moving suddenly, out of control

Colored- African-American/black. At the time Love wrote his biography, the term colored was used, though today we do not use this word as it is now considered offensive

Mount- get on a horse

Porter- a person who works for the railroad and helps passengers on the train

Dismount- get off a horse
